

RALLIANCE

Tolerance of the behaviors at the bottom supports or excuses those higher up. To change outcomes, we must change the culture.

pledge

I understand that rape culture is more than just rape. Instead, it is something we can contribute change to everyday with small but impactful efforts.

I understand that the locker room talk we are used to on campus and in everyday conversations is a part of this culture. However, I recognize that this is NOT "just a joke", harmless banter, and above all NOT okay.

I pledge to not engage or contribute in behaviors that add to rape culture.

I pledge not to look the other way when I hear anyone saying something that crosses the line.

I pledge to speak up, speak out, and to rally my friends in alliance against rape culture.

I acknowledge I am a role model and that I have the power to take the first steps towards change. And so I choose not to be a contributor, a facilitator, or a bystander. Change happens now, with me.
